You can mow the lawn any Saturday morning. But how often will you get the chance to watch the start of the Rosbifs and Snails 2CV Tour – a 1000 mile race to raise money for the Thames Valley & Chiltern Air Ambulance?

See the 2CVs, or 'snails', and meet the drivers, or 'Rosbifs'. Then watch an exhilarating Le Mans-type start, where participants rush to their waiting vehicles.

Judging by the cars, this breathless dash may be the fastest part of the race. So don't miss out on your chance to be part of the fun and wish all the drivers luck. They were only allowed to spend £777 on their 2CVs, so they're going to need it.

Les 'Rosbifs' will be dressed in silly wigs and moustaches, just like the boys from 118 118, main sponsors of the event. And Ross Brawn, ex technical director of Ferrari will be dropping the starters flag.

So enjoy a great Saturday morning that'll help raise money for an even better cause. Begin your weekend with some fun. Come on down and help Les Rosbifs & Snails off to a flying start!

PS: Help us spread the word please forward this flyer on to as many people as you can!

Thanks.
